Nasdaq: UBSH

May/June 2018

Certain statements in this presentation which are not statements of historical fact constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of, and subject to the protections of, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the "Securities Act," and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. Forward-looking statements include statements with respect to our beliefs, plans, objectives, goals, targets, expectations, anticipations, assumptions, estimates, intentions and future performance and involve known and unknown risks, many of which are beyond our control and which may cause our actual results, performance or achievements or the commercial banking industry or economy generally, to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. You can identify these forward-looking statements through our use of words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "may," "will," "assumes," "should," "predicts," "could," "would," "intends," "targets," "estimates," "projects," "plans," "potential" and other similar words and expressions of the future or otherwise regarding the outlook for our future business and financial performance and/or the performance of the commercial banking industry and economy in general. Forward-looking statements may include, without limitation:

- projections of revenues, expenses, income, income per share, net interest margins, asset growth, loan production, asset quality, deposit growth and other performance measures;
- statements regarding the anticipated benefits from or other effects of the merger between Union and Xenith;
- statements regarding expansion of operations, including branch openings, entrance into new markets, development of products and services, and execution of strategic initiatives; and
- discussions of the future state of the economy, competition, regulation, taxation, our business strategies, subsidiaries, investment risk and policies.

Forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, which change over time, are based on management's expectations and assumptions at the time the statements are made and are not guarantees of future results. Actual future performance, outcomes and results may differ materially from those expressed in or contemplated by these forward-looking statements due to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions, many of which are beyond our ability to control or predict. Certain factors that may affect our future results include, but are not limited to:

- the possibility that any of the anticipated benefits of the merger of Xenith with and into the Company, with the Company surviving, will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period, the businesses of the Company and Xenith may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected, the expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame, revenues following the merger may be lower than expected, or customer and employee relationships and business operations may be disrupted by the merger;
- changes in interest rates;
- general economic and financial market conditions;
- the Company's ability to manage its growth or implement its growth strategy;
- the incremental cost and/or decreased revenues associated with exceeding $10 billion in assets;
- levels of unemployment in the Bank's lending area;
- real estate values in the Bank's lending area;

- an insufficient allowance for loan losses;
- the quality or composition of the Company's loan or investment portfolios;
- concentrations of loans secured by real estate, particularly commercial real estate;
- the effectiveness of the Company's credit processes and management of the Company's credit risk;
- demand for loan products and financial services in the Company's market area;
- the Company's ability to compete in the market for financial services;
- technological risks and developments, and cyber attacks or events;
- performance by the Company's counterparties or vendors;
- deposit flows;
- the availability of financing and the terms thereof;
- the level of prepayments on loans and mortgage-backed securities;
- legislative or regulatory changes and requirements;
- the impact of the federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Act") signed into law on December 22, 2017, including, but not limited to, the effect of the lower federal corporate income tax rate, including on the valuation of our tax assets and liabilities;
- any future refinements to our preliminary analysis of the impact of the Tax Act on us;
- changes in the effect of the Tax Act due to issuance of interpretive regulatory guidance or enactment of corrective or supplemental legislation;
- monetary and fiscal policies of the U.S. government including policies of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve;
- accounting principles and guidelines; and
- the risks outlined in "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2018, and in other annual, quarterly and current reports that we may file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Should one or more of the foregoing risks materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results or outcomes may vary materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements included herein should not be relied upon as representing our expectations or beliefs as of any date subsequent to the date of this presentation. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements contained in this presentation, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The factors discussed herein are not intended to be a complete summary of all risks and uncertainties that may affect our businesses. Though we strive to monitor and mitigate risk, we cannot anticipate all potential economic, operational and financial developments that may adversely impact our operations and our financial results. Forward-looking statements should not be viewed as predictions and should not be the primary basis upon which investors evaluate an investment in our securities.

Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information

The unaudited pro forma financial information included herein is presented for informational purposes only and does not necessarily reflect the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined during periods presented. The adjustments included in this unaudited pro forma financial information are preliminary and may be significantly revised and may not agree to actual amounts finally recorded by Union. This financial information does not reflect the benefits of the merger's expected cost savings and expense efficiencies, opportunities to earn additional revenue, potential impacts of current market conditions on revenues or asset dispositions, among other factors, and includes various preliminary estimates and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been completed on the date or at the beginning of the period indicated or which may be attained in the future.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Union reports its results in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). However, management believes that certain non-GAAP performance measures used in managing the business may provide meaningful information about underlying trends in its business. Non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as an alternative for, Union's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Please see "Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Disclosures" at the end of this presentation for a reconciliation to the nearest GAAP financial measure.

No Offer or Solicitation

This presentation does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities. This presentation has been prepared primarily for security analysts and investors to serve as a convenient and useful reference document. Any offers to sell, solicitations of offers to buy or sales of securities, if any, will be made in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
